SUBJECT First customer for biorapid FOBT in France

This is to announce that the Microbiology Laboratory of Saint Denis Hospital in Paris has become the first user of biorapid FOBT in France.

The manager of the laboratory, Dr. Isabelle Gros, sent a kind letter to our distributor, Orgentec S.A., explaining the excellent performance of the assay after 15 days of routine use.

Biokit encourages you to promote the biorapid FOBT. You are sure to get customers as satisfied as this one.

A copy of the letter is enclosed together with the corresponding translation from French into English.

For more information about biorapid FOBT, refer to biokit news of 15 December 2004.

Saint Denis Hospital

Laboratory of Hygiene and Microbiology

Saint-Denis, 1st February 2005

Dear Sir:

After using the biorapid FOBT assay during the last 15 days, I inform you my fully satisfaction about technical quality of the reagent, its friendly use and the commercial relation with Orgentec SA company.

Yours faithfully,

Dr. I. Gros
